RE: Branden Nava

CONTINUATION:

Agent Perez immediately notified surrounding Agents and other law enforcement agencies in the area about the situation and initiated a vehicle pursuit. Agent Perez witnessed the driver of the pickup truck driving in a dangerous manner by passing civilian vehicles on the unimproved shoulder of the roadway at a high rate of speed. After following the pickup truck for approximately 4 miles, Agent Perez discontinued the pursuit and returned to the scene of the bailout. After a search of the area, the agents apprehended seven illegal aliens.

Approximately fifteen minutes after, Radio Communications advised that Hidalgo County Sheriff's Office had made contact with the pickup truck and the driver. Agent Perez responded and identified the white pickup truck and driver. The driver of the truck was identified as Branden NAVA. Sheriff Arguello stated he noticed the truck parked on the side of the road and a man outside walking around the truck. Sheriff Arguello made a consensual approach and confirmed that the vehicle was in fact the suspect vehicle previously pursued by Border Patrol. Sheriff Arguello detained the subject and notified Border Patrol. Agent Perez took custody of Branden NAVA and placed him under arrest for alien smuggling. Before agents could provide NAVA with his Miranda Rights, NAVA freely stated he fled the scene of the bailout out of fear of returning to prison.
